SUPER KIDS CLUB AND SUPER TEEN SQUAD HOME FOR THE HOLIDAYS

Santa Claus surprises youth at the Super Kids Club and Teen Squad holiday get-together held at the Community Recreational Service Social Program facility.

BY RICHIE CORRALES
O'odham Action News

The Super Kids Club and Super Teen Squad, part of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Recreational Services Department, hosted a Home for the Holidays celebration at Social Programs' mini-multipurpose room on December 18.

The Super Kids Club and Super Teen Squad are recreational groups that offer activities designed especially for children with functional limitations in learning and adaptive skills who are not able to participate in other Community Recreational Services programs due to disability.

The event was a holiday dinner and celebration for the families. The special guest for the evening, Santa Claus, helped staff hand out presents to all the kids in the program. The room was brightly decorated with holiday spirit.

In each room was a different activity for the children. Along with dinner and a photo with Santa, activities included making ornaments for Christmas trees, cookie decorating, and

On Thursday, December 19, the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Recreational Services Social Programs held its annual Winterfest Christmas Program for parents and families in the After-School Program.

Students in the After-School Program range from kindergarten to sixth grade and attend Salt River Elementary and Noah Webster-Pima.

The program was held on the lawn of the Social Programs Facility, where families were served a menu of fried chicken, side dishes and even pozole, all of which was provided by the staff and parents.

The night continued on with holiday performances from each grade. The children sang and danced to classic holiday songs such as "Frosty the Snowman," "Rudolph the Red-Nosed Reindeer" and more. There was also a special performance from CRS staff.

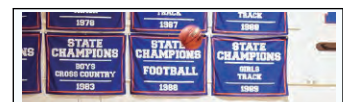

Following the performances, Santa arrived and handed out gifts to all the children. He took pictures with those who wanted to meet him and try to get in their last-minute gift requests.

While families enjoyed pizza and pasta in the Social Programs mini multipurpose room, Santa Claus visited every table wishing every child a happy holiday.

Santa Claus also took time to help pass out presents to all the members of the program.

Red Mountain Eagle Pow-wow Princess La'Zensiah Vest took part in making cookies with family.

Youth showed each other their gifts after unwrapping them.

Many of the youth were excited to see Santa Claus make a special appearance at the holiday party.

Junior Lifeguard Program Team Up With WIOA to Teach Youth New Skills

BY TASHA SILVERHORN
O'odham Action News
tasha.silverhorn2@srpmic-nsn.gov

The Aquatics Division of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Recreational Services Department has partnered with the Workforce Innovation and Opportunity Act (WIOA) program to offer the Junior Lifeguard Program, a way for SRPMIC youth to earn money and learn a new skill. The program is offered in fall and spring sessions.

The goal is to teach Community youth to become trained and certified lifeguards, at which point they may want to apply for lifeguard jobs with the Aquatics division.

The first group of youth participated in the program this fall. Eight youth signed up for the fall session in October; the class ultimately ended up with six. Three of those six are eligible to become certified lifeguards with SRPMIC; the other three are currently ineligible because they don't yet meet the age requirements. They can continue on as junior lifeguards until they turn 15.

"We really want them to come work here for the Community and hope everything comes through," said Aquatics Manager Kyle Stephens. "We don't have any Community-member lifeguards, [which is why we're] pushing [the] Junior Lifeguard [program], the swim team—anything that we can [to] push [more Native Americans to become] swimmers."

Working with WIOA gives the youth an opportunity to have more time to learn how to become a lifeguard. A typical lifeguard class is usually a four-day class that is divided into a 12-week program.

The youth are learning the American Red Cross curriculum and are doing the full lifeguard course.

"They are doing hands-on training in first aid, cardiopulmonary resuscitation, automated external defibrillator and water skills. We also included some swimming lessons," said Stephens.

He added that job-seeking skills also a part of the program. "We are teaching them a five-module curriculum [covering] the basics of how to create a résumé, how to interview, how to create an employment portfolio, how to be professional in the workplace, how to be on time to work, and more."

In this new program, SRPMIC youth are getting paid to train, working one-on-one with real lifeguards and performing as lifeguards by helping to maintain the safety of the pools and enforcing the rules.

For more information on the Junior Lifeguard Program and how to sign up, contact WIOA Case Manager Margaret Miles at (480) 362-5759.

White House Nominates Familiar Face to Lead IHS

Pueblo of Zuni citizen and longtime Indian Health Service (IHS) employee Michael Weahkee is expected to be confirmed as director of IHS.

President Trump nominated Weahkee in October for the lead position at IHS, which has been without a permanent leader for more than four years. It's not clear when Weahkee could be confirmed, but it could happen soon once the Senate votes. As of mid-December, Weahkee was listed online as principal deputy director of IHS, according to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

Weahkee previously served as CEO the Phoenix Indian Medical Center.

The last confirmed IHS director was Yvette Roubideaux (Rosebud Sioux Tribe), who left the agency in 2015. Since then, only "acting" directors have led IHS.

Pueblo Woman Named First Native to Washington Supreme Court

Raquel Montoya-Lewis (Isleta Pueblo) made history in the state of Washington recently when she was named to the Washington Supreme Court.

Montoya-Lewis is the first Native justice in the institution's history. Her appointment runs through next year, and the seat will be on the November 2020 ballot, according to the Seattle Times.

Montoya-Lewis has 20 years of judicial experience. She has served as chief judge for three Native tribes in Washington.

Dakota 38+2 Memorial Ride

They ride horseback in snow, freezing temperatures and other harsh winter elements in remembrance of December 26, 1862, when 38 Dakota men were killed in the largest mass hanging in U.S. history. Two other Dakota men were later hanged in what is known in Indian Country as the Dakota 38+2. That horrific day was one result of U.S. federal policy to remove the Dakota people from their lands and open the area to white settlement.

The Dakota 38+2 Memorial Ride started on the Lower Brule Indian Reservation in South Dakota and ended in Mankato, Minnesota, on December 26. The annual 330-mile horseback ride began in 2005 as a memorial to those who died and a way to help youth connect with their culture. Native people young and old make the trek each winter across South Dakota to southern Minnesota.

The 2020 Census Is Here

Native organizations across Indian Country are encouraging tribal citizens to participate in the 2020 Census.

The National Congress of American Indians (NCAI) has provided a free toolkit available online to help make sure all Native people are counted.

Nearly $1 billion in annual federal resources is allocated to Indian Country based on census data, according to NCAI.

NCAI has offered the following tips:

"Checking the box to indicate that you are American Indian or Alaska Native on the 2020 Census form is a matter of self-identification. No proof is required. No one will ask you to show a tribal enrollment card or a Certificate of Degree of Indian Blood (CDIB). Make sure to write in your enrolled or principal tribe, if applicable."

'Star Wars' Family Night at Salt River Library

BY DEBORAH STONEBURNER
O'odham Action News
deborah.stoneburner@srmic-nsn.gov

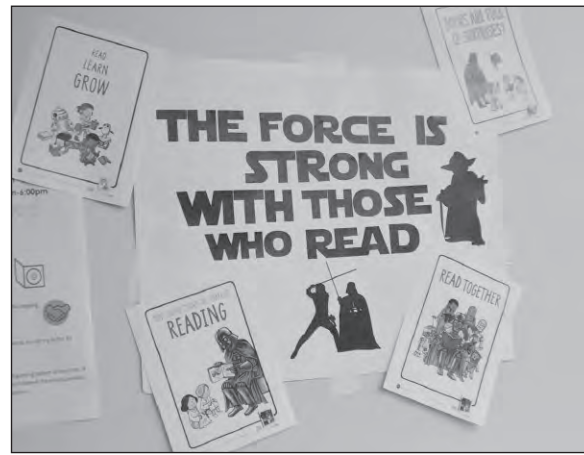

On Wednesday, December 18, the Salt River Library welcomed families, kids and all Star Wars fans for a fun family activity night. Half of the library was decked out with Star Wars decorations from floor to ceiling; there was even an R2-D2 trash can. Leading up to the Star Wars family night, kids were able to make decorations when visiting the library after school hours. Some decorations were green painted plates with ears like Yoda and string noodle floaties cut in half with black handles, representing light sabers.

The event was open until 8 p.m. Fun activities included Star Wars-themed Perler bead patterns, Trouble board game, puzzles, and even a Star Wars trivia game for those hard-core Star Wars fans. The library also created a special display of Star Wars-related books.

Everyone who stopped by could choose from the various activities, enter a raffle, or just talk about the Star Wars series. It was a great opportunity for families to spend quality time together.

"When gone am I, the last of the Jedi will you be. The Force runs strong in your family. Pass on what you have learned." —Yoda, to a young Luke Skywalker

Deadline for Arizona Travel ID Is October

Arizona Travel ID sample.

BY DALTON WALKER
O'odham Action News
dalton.walker@srmic-nsn.gov

Effective October 1, TSA airport security checkpoints will accept only the Arizona Travel ID driver license or ID card, the U.S. passport and other federally approved forms of identification.

If you depend on an Arizona driver's license for air travel, you'll need to get an Arizona Travel ID. The ID looks like a driver's license but has a gold star embedded in the card. The Arizona Travel ID complies with the federal REAL ID Act of 2005. The October 2020 deadline was set years ago.

Federally recognized tribal IDs fall under federally approved identification and can be used at airport security. To see a full list of acceptable identification, visit www.tsa.gov/travel/security-screening/identification.

To apply for an Arizona Travel ID, visit a Motor Vehicle Division office or third-party office and be sure to bring $25 for the fee, a birth certificate or a U.S. passport, a Social Security card or W-2, and proof of residency in the form of two documents with your current address, such as a utility bill or bank statement.

SRPD Adds Three New Police Officers

BY OFFICER CHRISTOPHER DAVIS
Salt River Police Department

On December 10, the Salt River Police Department's newest police officers, Cory Roberts, Guillermo Guerrero Jr, and Luke Boehmer, were sworn in by Salt River Community Court judge Darayne Achin in a ceremony held in the SRPMIC Justice Center.

All three were hired by the SRPD as lateral police officers. This means they already carry certification as peace officers within the State of Arizona after receiving prior police academy training.

Officer Roberts is from a small town in Iowa and graduated from Iowa State University. His passion for service began at the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office, where he served for more than three years. Officer Roberts enjoys spending time with his family and being outdoors.

Officer Guerrero is from California, and his passion for service brings 13 years of experience from Illinois and the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office. Officer Guerrero is very family oriented and also loves spending time with his friends.

Officer Boehmer is from Glendale, Arizona, and his passion for service began at the Maricopa County Sheriff's Office, where he served for three years. During his free time, Officer Boehmer enjoys rock climbing, playing soccer and playing music. He also loves all of his animals, which include three cats, two goats and six chickens. Officer Boehmer expressed that he loves spending time with his family any chance he gets.

The three new SRPD officers were welcomed to the Community by SRPMIC President Martin Harvier, who spent some time with each to learn about their backgrounds, experiences and the reasons they wanted to serve here with the SRPD.

Roberts, Guerrero and Boehmer are currently attending three weeks of SRPD New Officer Transitional Training Education (NOTE) classroom training before beginning their standard 12-week Field Training Officer program. This program requires all newly hired police officers to work alongside several certified Field Training Officers who coach, mentor and evaluate their readiness to serve the Community as future solo beat police officers.

An Update on the StrongLife Wellness Program

BY TASHA SILVERHORN
O'odham Action News
tasha.silverhorn2@srpmic-nsn.gov

In June 2019, the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community began offering the StrongLife Community Wellness Program for SRPMIC members and their immediate family. This family wellness program was developed specifically for the SRPMIC to help build strong lives and strong families, not only physically but also mentally, emotionally and spiritually.

StrongLife is open to all enrolled Community members and their immediate family members ages 5 and older residing in the household, even if they are not enrolled. The five pillars of the StrongLife program are Family Wellness, Social and Cultural Wellness, Emotional and Spiritual Wellness, Physical Wellness and Financial Wellness.

"Community members participate in activities within the five themes [to earn] points," said Community Wellness Manager Toni Harvier. Members can partake in any activities advertised around the Community that feature the StrongLife logo. Harvier added, "There is a maximum of 750 points with a monetary amount up to 500 points, which is 1 point equal $1, and there is a minimum of 50 points to receive an incentive. Part of the overall points include taking a biometric screening and working on a major personal goal."

The program's next major event will be the StrongLife Wellness Expo on January 11, held at the Salt River Clinic from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Community members, spouses and children can sign up for the program and participate in the Know Your Numbers assessment, a biometric screening. When the screening is completed, the participants will receive a $100 Visa gift card. The screening will be administered by Salt River Clinic nurses and will measure A1C (diabetes), cholesterol, blood pressure, lipids and more. The event will feature lunch, inflatable jumpers for the kids and entertainment by a chicken scratch band.

The StrongLife Wellness Program started in a limited way in June 2019, but the program officially kicks off this month (January 2020).

To join or learn more about the program, contact Community Wellness Manager Toni Harvier at (480) 362-6995 or visit SRPMIC StrongLife Wellness on Facebook.

SRPD Maintains a Strong Focus on The Community During the Holiday Season

BY OFF. JOSEPH OROZCO
Salt River Police Department

Community policing is defined as the effort to build relationships and collaboration with the Community that Salt River Police Department (SRPD) police officers have sworn to serve and protect. To reduce crime and increase awareness, the SRPD has partnered with the Community to identify problems and areas of improvement and works collaboratively on resolving these issues proactively. The SRPD has embraced the concept of community policing and has strived to push it to the next level with Community programs, events and outreach to other Community resources for partnerships.

For example, the SRPD joined forces in a collaborative effort with the SRP-MIC Family Advocacy Center to assist with a Christmas event for Community children in foster care. On Friday, December 6, the SRPD brought out Santa to meet and take photos with the children. Officers assisted in the event and posed with the children—some of the kids even preferred SRPD uniforms to Santa’s red suit!

On Saturday, December 7, more than 50 SRPD team members and their families volunteered their time to work with Salt River Social Services for the annual SRPD Shop With a Cop event. Police officers accompanied Community children as they went shopping for Christmas presents. During the event, SRPD used the armored response carrier (ARC) to give Santa Claus a memorable entrance for the kids during their provided breakfast, held at Scottsdale Community College. The event was a great success, and the smiles from both children and officers were plentiful.

SRPD male police officers have been growing out their beards and the ladies have been donning blue jeans for the “No Shave November” event, which turned into “Double-Down December” and now “Just Keep It January.” This fundraiser involves volunteer SRPD officers and professional staff who pay a small entry fee to grow out their facial hair or wear blue jeans during for an entire month to raise awareness for the Salt River Children’s Foundation and an ongoing charity campaign to benefit the children of the Community who are in need. This year the program is also assisting the SRPD Honor Guard to attend Police Week in May to honor fallen SRPD officer Clayton Townsend (#307), who will be added to the monument honoring fallen officers in Washington, D.C.

Although all of these community policing events occurred during December, it is not just the Christmas spirit and the holiday season that brings out the Salt River Police Department—it is who they are as a department and it reflects their pride in the Community that they serve, as events like these are constantly occurring throughout the year. Community policing is a concept that the SRPD is constantly striving to improve upon, so that Community members, officers and professional staff alike can work hand-in-hand for the betterment of this great Community.

If you would like to make a donation for “Just Keep it January,” donations can be made to the GoFundMe website for the events at <http://gofundme.com/srpd-no-shave-november>.

SRPMIC a Big Presence in Westwood Girls' Basketball

BY TASHA SILVERHORN
O'odham Action News
tasha.silverhorn2@srpmic-nsn.gov

A significant number of Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community members are playing on the Westwood High School girls' basketball teams this season, with 12 young ladies on the freshman, junior varsity and varsity teams. Some of the girls even play on two teams. On Tuesday, December 10, all three teams played against the Copper Canyon Aztecs and all three were victorious.

Six SRPMIC members play on the varsity team, three of whom are seniors Daycee Achin, Sydney Carlos and Morning Star Scabby. Achin's sister, sophomore Nyese Jones, and Scabby's sister, freshman Kristine Scabby, also play on the freshman team. The sixth player on the varsity team is Aubri Scabby, who came to Westwood from Skyline High School. She is currently sitting out for the first 10 games and will be playing in the second half of the season.

"We always want to try and improve from what we did last year. We had a big group of returning girls from last season, so that helped," said Westwood girls' varsity basketball coach Ron Campton. "Last year, we went 22-8 overall and went into the second round of the playoffs. This year we want to finish [with a better record] and [deeper] into the season than we have before, which will be tough because there are some really good teams in 6A [division]. But we have a pretty decent squad, so we'll see what we can do."

Four SRPMIC members play on the junior varsity team: Cassandra Montana, a junior; her sister Tori Smith, a sophomore; Alexis Smith, a freshman (new to the team); and her sister Andreea Miguel, a sophomore (new to the team). Alexis Smith came from Stapley Junior High, where she and Kristine Scabby took the championship in basketball last school year. Alexis Smith also plays on the freshman team.

"It was kind of hard at first, trying to adapt to everything, but I like it better because it's faster," said Alexis Smith when asked how high school basketball differs from junior high basketball. "I hope to have an actual spot on JV next year and maybe have a spot on varsity, but I would like to mostly improve on my defense and not reach and foul a lot."

The freshman team includes a whole new group of girls. Joining Alexis Smith and Kristine Scabby are Angel Washington and Faith Smith, both from Carson Junior High. This team is currently undefeated and has a bright outlook for winning a championship title this year.

"The freshman are the new kids on the block. They are like sponges and they adapt to everything in practice and apply it to the games. They generally like to play the game, which makes it fun," said freshman coach Krystal

SRPMIC members Aubri Scabby, Morning Star Scabby, Kristine Scabby, Nyese Jones, Daycee Achin, and Sydney Carlos play on the Westwood High School Girls Basketball team, the Lady Warriors are currently 1-0 and standing No. 1 in the 6A East Valley.

Tolliver. "They have every potential to be undefeated as a freshman team. They are going to put in work throughout the rest of the season and they are going to help out on the JV team because they are that talented."

As of December 19, the varsity team is 1-0 and was standing at No. 1 in the 6A East Valley. The junior varsity team record was 3-4, and the freshman girls were undefeated at 7-0. As the winter break begins, the teams will continue the second half of their season with 12 more games starting this month.

I'm looking at signing up for another triathlon, maybe the ironman. It's time to be active again and promote healthy living like my ancestors. Granted they didn't have Netflix so its going to be a challenge.

How to Keep Your New Year's Resolution

BY RICHE CORRALES
O'odham Action News

Even though we talk about New Year's resolutions, we know most of us will fail in reaching them. But what if we plan them out carefully? A New Year's resolution is a personal goal to improve your life. Start by setting an attainable goal, something you know you can do and complete.

Many popular resolutions involve saving money, becoming healthier, spending more time with family or learning a new hobby.

But is it a resolution that someone else has, or is it something personal to yourself? Do you have a plan for when you are going to achieve it? Rather than something vague, such as the popular "I am going to lose weight," make a specific goal for yourself, such as "By springtime I want to lose 6 to 7 pounds."

Did you know that only about 8% of people actually complete their New Year's resolutions, even the ones that are achievable? Start by making realistic goals you know you can achieve. Also, choose a goal that really matters only to you, such as changing a behavior: "I'm going to slow down on spending," "This year I will quit smoking" or "I will start going to bed earlier this year."

Make an outline for the steps it will take to achieve the resolution. For example, if you plan to save money this year, make a budget and start cutting down on specific "wants," such as cable or online TV subscriptions, expensive coffee drinks or manicures. You can make your own coffee or do your own nails—it might even be fun!

Don't get frustrated; it takes time to change a behavior that has become a habit. Remember, you must give it time and be patient with yourself. If you're not making enough progress or your resolution seems to be unachievable, sometimes talking about it with others will help.

Last but not least, reward yourself after you complete your New Year's resolutions. After all that hard work, you deserve it.

Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community members and their families rang in the new year with hours of fun and celebration on December 31 at the Salt River Community Building.

The events included midway carnival rides, a game truck video-gaming party, a photo station, music by DJ Reflekshin, and a chicken scratch dance with the band Southern Scratch. Balloons dropped in the gym as the countdown finished and everyone said goodbye to 2019 and hello to 2020. That was topped off with a fireworks show that began promptly at midnight.

Many food vendors offered goodies throughout the night, and party favors were handed out to attendees.

2020 Happy New Year!

JANUARY

Salt River Police Department Officer Clayton Townsend is killed in the line of duty on January 8. Townsend was struck by a driver during a traffic stop on Loop 101 on the Community's west side. He was 26. Townsend served the Community for five years as a patrol officer in the SRPD Field Operations Division. SRPMIC held a vigil for Townsend on January 11. A memorial service was held on January 14 at Christ's Church of the Valley in Peoria.

JANUARY

Wi-Bwa Grey is elected to fill an empty Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Council seat on January 14. She was sworn in on January 23. The seat had been vacated after former Council member Ricardo Leonard was sworn in as the new SRPMIC Vice-President in December 2018. The Community has seven Council members; five are elected from District I, Salt River, and two are elected from District II, Lehi. Grey represents District I.

FEBRUARY

SRPMIC hosts the annual Walk for O'odham Piipaash on February 9. The 2-mile walk started and ended at the Lehi Community Building. The event was founded in 2003 by the O'odham Himdakh Nem Womk Chunchk Committee with a nearly 6-mile walk from Lehi through the riverbed to Friendship Park, where the Two Waters Building stands. Later, the tribal government took on the walk as a sponsored event to ensure its continuation each year.

FEBRUARY

The Salt River Eagles girls' basketball team ends the 2018-19 season with a second-place finish in the Canyon Athletic Association (CAA) Division 1 Arizona State Tournament. The Eagles ran off 14 straight regular-season and postseason wins before falling to St. John Paul II Catholic on February 18 at Talking Stick Resort Arena, home of the Phoenix Suns and Phoenix Mercury basketball teams.

MARCH

AMC's "Ride with Norman Reedus" premieres its episode with a Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community connection on March 4. Norman Reedus is known for his role in the AMC show "The Walking Dead," and he is also a motorcycle enthusiast. Reedus and the show's film crew visited the Community and the Red Mountain Riders in 2018 to shoot a segment. Red Mountain Riders was founded in 2007 by George L. Lerma, James Osife, Leonard Villeneuve and Gabe Castaneda.

MARCH

The Arizona Senate and House of Representatives recognize fallen Salt River Police Department Officer Clayton Townsend with a reading of House Concurrent Resolution 2035 on March 14 at the Arizona Capitol. While conducting a traffic stop two months earlier, Townsend was killed by a distracted driver texting on a cellphone. Townsend's family played a big role in implementing Arizona's new texting-and-driving ban.

APRIL

The Salt River Tribal Library celebrates its 50th anniversary on April 26. The library, located on the second floor of the Way Of Life Facility, celebrated with live waila music outside and live deejay music inside. A hamburger and hot dog meal with cake was provided, as well as other festivities. The library has a collection of more than 15,000 books and periodicals. It's one of 16 tribal libraries in the state.

APRIL

The Community hosts a play called "Native Nation" on April 20 at the Two Waters courtyard. The play was presented by ASU Gammage in partnership with Cornerstone Theatre Company. It featured mostly a Native cast, including a few Community members. The 90-minute play was written by Larissa FastHorse and directed by Michael John Garces.

MAY

The SRPMIC is inducted into the Scottsdale History Hall of Fame on May 9. The Community is one of six new inductees honored at a special dinner ceremony at the Scottsdale Resort at McCormick Ranch. Inductees serve as role models and must have a major impact on the City of Scottsdale. SRPMIC President Martin Harvier accepted the Hall of Fame plaque on behalf of the Community.

MAY

U.S. Department of Health and Human Services Deputy Secretary Eric D. Hargan visits the Community on May 8 to tour health-related facilities and meet with tribal leaders. While in Arizona, Hargan also visited with the Navajo Nation and Native American health officials in Phoenix. On May 9, Hargan spoke at the Secretary Tribal Advisory Committee meeting at Talking Stick Resort.

JUNE

Manderee Jose is crowned Miss Salt River and Teegan Smith is crowned Jr. Miss Salt River for 2019-20. The 27th annual Jr. Miss Salt River Pageant was held on June 14, and the 31st annual Miss Salt River Pageant was held on June 15. Marisela Villegas was named Jr. Miss Salt River First Attendant and Isabella Dockerty was named Miss Salt River First Attendant.

JUNE

On June 15, the SRPMIC celebrates Community Day at the Two Waters Complex. President Martin Harvier read the SRPMIC Day Proclamation. The day was a celebration and included a free meal, vendors and live music. Community Day commemorates U.S. President Rutherford B. Hayes signing an executive order on June 14, 1879, to establish the Salt River Indian Reservation.

JULY

On July 12, the Salt River Police Department opens its new Property and Evidence Bureau in a special ribbon-cutting ceremony. The 13,778-square-foot facility is a storage facility and will have capacity for years to ensure that the SRPD meets industry standards and practices. It will be used for receiving, booking and storing criminal evidence, found property and property held for safekeeping. The building is on 4.5 acres and has a 2-acre vehicle impound unit. It sits near the Way Of Life Facility.

JULY

SRPMIC President Martin Harvier testifies in the Subcommittee Hearing on Tribal Infrastructure on July 11 in Washington, D.C. Harvier gave an opening statement on tribal transportation and infrastructure. He talked about the strain on the public safety and public works agencies that are responsible for maintaining and keeping existing roadways safe for travel. Harvier was one of three tribal leaders to testify.

AUGUST

SRPMIC breaks ground on a new USS Arizona memorial on August 13. The site of the memorial is near the Great Wolf Lodge and Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in the Talking Stick Entertainment District. It features a section of the boathouse from the USS Arizona, which was sunk during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7, 1941. The memorial is set to open to the public in early 2020.

AUGUST

Arizona Superintendent of Public Instruction Kathy Hoffman visits Salt River schools not long after the start of the 2019-20 school year. On August 23, Hoffman toured the Early Childhood Education Center, Salt River Elementary School and Salt River High School. Hoffman was elected in November 2018 and assumed office in January 2019. She oversees Arizona's public-school system as head of the Arizona Department of Education.

SEPTEMBER

Salt River Fields at Talking Stick is named Best Spring Training Ballpark of the Decade by Ball Park Digest, a media company that covers the business and culture side of Major League Baseball, minor league baseball and college ball. Salt River Fields is home to the Arizona Diamondbacks and Colorado Rockies during spring training. The 11,000-seat ballpark opened in 2011 and includes 12 practice fields. Salt River Fields is also home to the Salt River Rafters of the Arizona Fall League and other baseball leagues throughout the year.

SEPTEMBER

The SRPMIC Social Services Department celebrates the completion of its renovation project with an open house on September 30. The renovations at the former Community Service building lasted more than a year; Social Services now occupies more than half of the space. Guests were led on tours and were shown how to best utilize the department's services.

OCTOBER

Great Wolf Lodge opens a waterpark/hotel in the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community with a grand-opening celebration on October 17. The resort is located near Salt River Fields at Talking Stick in the Talking Stick Entertainment District. The waterpark is Great Wolf's 18th U.S. resort and its first in Arizona. It has a massive indoor waterpark with multiple slides and 350 hotel suites.

OCTOBER

Salt River Elementary School teacher Lynette Stant was named 2020 Arizona Teacher of the Year by the Arizona Education Foundation. The third-grade teacher and 16-year SRES veteran is the first Native American teacher to win the award in its 37-year history. Stant was celebrated with four finalists at a special luncheon at the Arizona Biltmore in Phoenix. She also was recognized by the SRPMIC Council a few days after the award ceremony at a Council meeting.

NOVEMBER

The Huhugam Ki Museum celebrates its 32nd anniversary on November 2 with delicious mesquite pancakes and other goodies. The hours-long event included mesquite-pod milling, demonstrations of traditional cultural arts, vendors and tortilla sales. The museum features multiple displays of the history of the O'odham and Piipaash people, including the many who served in the military. The celebration was also a first look at a new exhibition installation.

NOVEMBER

On November 15, SRPMIC Administration and the Young River People's Council hosted a financial literacy workshop at the Way Of Life Facility that focused on Community youth ages 12 and older. Students made their way through the Seven Generation Money Management program, where they learned the basics of investing, opening a bank account, purchasing a car, renting an apartment, buying a house and other life skills by participating in mock demonstrations.

DECEMBER

SRPMIC Public Works employee Tommy Gardner is named the 2019 SRPMIC Tribal Employee of the Year. The winner was announced at the annual SRPMIC Tribal Employee Holiday Luncheon on December 4 at Talking Stick Resort. Gardner, a construction project supervisor for Public Works, was one of eight tribal employees nominated. The others were Lynette Aguilar, Michael Altamirano, Jordan Christensen, Kimberly Clark, Paul Johnston, Glen Law and Lou Lombardi.

DECEMBER

On December 14, the annual SRPMIC Light Parade lights up the Community in holiday spirit. The route started at the SRPMIC Community Building, went north along Longmore Road and ended at the Two Waters employee parking lot. Among the parade entries, Salt River High School won Most Spirited, Top Golf won Best Use of Lights and Color, Salt River High School JROTC won Best Walking, and SRPMIC Engineering and Construction Services won Most Unique. Earlier in the day, SRPMIC held its annual Christmas Program at Two Waters.

to make each wrestler better each week. My strategy is for each wrestler to become a leader on and off the mat. I want to instill the motivation for each wrestler to want to improve.”

Wrestling is arguably the most grueling prep sport to participate in. About a dozen or so wrestlers are part of the Salt River wrestling teams, including boys and girls of all ages.

“Some of the challenges are the demands of the sport of wrestling,” Crebs said. “You are in one of the hardest sports there is—if it was easy, everyone would do it. You will be a better person overall through wrestling.”

Here is the remaining schedule for varsity and junior high wrestling. Note: Check www.azcaa.com for schedule changes and event locations.

Varsity Wrestling

Jan. 7: Multi-meet at Imagine Surprise, 5 p.m.
Jan. 18: Warriors Classic at Canyon State, 8 a.m.
Jan. 24: Multi-meet at Imagine Superstition, 5 p.m.
Feb. 8: CAA State Championships, TBD

Junior High Wrestling

Jan. 3: Meet at Canyon State, 5 p.m.
Jan. 11: Meet at Phoenix Christian, 8 a.m.
Jan. 17: Meet at ALA Gilbert, 5 p.m.
Jan. 25: CAA State Championships, TBD

It's wrestling season, and Salt River High School athletes are ready to hit the wrestling mat.

Coach David Crebs leads the varsity team and coach Antonio Perez leads junior varsity. Each team has a few meets left in the regular season before playoffs.

Salt River wrestling participates in the Canyon Athletic Association.

Crebs said he's proud of the work his wrestlers have put in so far this season and is excited to continue the season.

“I want to build character and responsibility through the sport of wrestling,” Crebs said. “I strive

Monitoring Solutions for Loved Ones with Dementia

Dear Savvy Senior,

My husband, who lives at home, has dementia and I worry about him wandering off and not being able to get back. Can you recommend some monitoring technology devices or any other solutions that can help me keep tabs on him?

Exhausted Spouse

Dear Exhausted,

This is a concern for millions of Americans caring for a loved one with dementia at home. About 60 percent of people who suffer from dementia wander at some point, according to the Alzheimer's Association.

For caregivers, this can be frightening because many of those who wander off end up confused and lost, even in their own neighborhood, and are unable to communicate who they are or where they live. Here are some product and service solutions that may help.

Simple Solutions

For starters, there are a number of simple home modifications you can do to keep your husband from wandering away. Some solutions include adding an extra lock on the top or bottom of the exterior doors out of the line of sight or installing door alarms on the exterior doors that let you know when they're opened. See AlzStore.com for a variety of product solutions. And, be sure you hide the car keys to keep him from driving.

You should also alert your neighbors that your husband may wander so they can keep an eye out and have a recent picture of him on hand to show around the neighborhood or to the police if he does get lost.

Monitoring Technology

For high-tech solutions, there are a variety of wearable GPS tracking devices available today that can help you keep tabs on him. Some top options to consider include AngelSense (AngelSense.com), which can be attached to clothing or worn around the waist; wristwatches like the Theora Connect (TheoraCare.com) or NurtureWatch (NurtureWatch.com); and the GPS SmartSole (GPSSmartSole.com), which is a shoe insole tracker.

All of these products come with smartphone apps that would alert you if your husband were to wander beyond a pre-established safe area and would let you know where to find him if he did. These products (except the GPS SmartSole) also provide two-way voice communication and auto pickup speakerphone so you can talk to him if he does wander off.

Locating Services

If the previously listed options don't work for you, there are also locating services – like the MedicAlert + Safe Return program (MedicAlert.org/alz) and Vitals Aware Services (TheVital-App.com) – that can help you if he does wander off.

The MedicAlert + Safe Return program comes with a personalized ID bracelet that would have your husband's medical information engraved on it, along with his membership number and the toll-free MedicAlert emergency phone number. If he goes missing, you would call 911 and report it to the local police department who would begin a search, and then report it to MedicAlert. Or, a Good Samaritan or police officer may find him and call the MedicAlert number to get him back home.

The Vitals Aware Service works a bit differently. This is a free app-based network system that comes with a small beacon that your husband would wear. If he did go missing, anyone in the Vitals app network community that came within 80 feet of him would receive an alert and information about him so they could contact you.

Another option that could help, depending on where you live, is a radio frequency locator service like SafetyNet and Project Lifesaver, which are offered by some local law enforcement agencies.

With these services, your husband would wear a wristband that contains a radio transmitter that emits tracking signals. If he goes missing, you would contact the local authorities who would send out rescue personnel who will use their tracking equipment to locate him. Visit SafetyNetTracking.com and ProjectLifesaver.org to see if these services are available in your community.

Send your senior questions to: Savvy Senior, P.O. Box 5443, Norman, OK 73070, or visit SavvySenior.org. Jim Miller is a contributor to the NBC Today show and author of “The Savvy Senior” book.

PUBLIC COMMENT PERIOD NOTICE: AMENDMENT TO THE ZONING ORDINANCE, CHAPTER 25 OF THE SRPMIC CODE OF ORDINANCES

On December 4, 2019 in general Council session, and in accordance with the SRPMIC Ordinance Development Policy (Policy 1-20), the SRPMIC Council approved a public comment period of one-hundred twenty (120) days for amendments to the Zoning Ordinance and Zoning Map, Chapter 25 of the SRPMIC Code of Ordinances. The public comment period begins December 5, 2019 and ends at midnight April 2, 2020.

The purpose of the 2019 Amendments to the Zoning Ordinance is to improve formatting and clarify language, update certain Articles/Sections of Zoning Ordinance for clarification, simplification, or to reflect development needs, and to update the zoning map for use of tribally owned land for government services.

The Zoning Ordinance establishes laws and regulations that define how property in specific zones can be used, the application processes for reviewing and approving uses and development, and the regulations on building and site improvements, such as size, intensity and setback of buildings, parking, lighting, signage and landscaping. Community Council adopted the current Zoning Ordinance on July 1, 2015.

A copy of the Amendment to the Zoning Ordinance can be picked-up at the Office of General Counsel or Community Development Department offices. An electronic copy can also be found on the SRPMIC Intranet website by clicking the link heading: "Ordinance Public Comments"

Community Matters

The Salt River Materials Group Clarkdale Cement Plant participated in the annual Cottonwood Christmas Parade on December 7, 2019. The parade has been a staple in the community since 1954. This year's theme was "Candyland Christmas." Our plant employees used their incredibly artistic abilities to craft a Candyland style game board using our cement bags. They also constructed a Christmas tree out of stuffed bags and used our 47lb bags to make bags that held candy to hand out to the onlookers. SRMG took first place in the commercial category. Congrats!
