A total of 303 employees were recognized on February 2 for their years of service to the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community.

The employees were honored at the 2023 Service Award Luncheon at Talking Stick Resort, which was attended by the honored employees, their supervisors and Community leadership.

The 2023 Service Award Recognition Program was organized by the Community's Human Resources Department to recognize employees for reaching specific employment milestones.

"One of the greatest things about today's program is that over 300 people were recognized," said Human Resources Director Steve Haydukovich. "If you take a look at this number in a broader sense, the Community should be very proud of the number of people who attended this event and the number of people who 'work for the Community, stay for the Community.'"

Haydukovich said that it's a testament of a great organization and Community to show members that once you're in as an employee, it's an excellent growing and learning opportunity.

In recent decades, the traditional game of toka has found its way back to the O'odham women of the Sonoran Desert. In the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, Community member Jessica Ruiz, shared the ins and outs of the recreational sport with interested women on January 31 at the Salt River Tribal Library.

The Community currently has two toka teams: Onk Akimel Siviliki and Salt River Tadaí. Ruiz has been a member of Onk Akimel Siviliki since 2016. She also teaches the game to Salt River Elementary School students as a part of their after-school program.

"I tell my students, 'You don't have to be the best singer or dancer. You could be the best toka player there is. That is your skill; that is the gift the Creator gave you,'" said Ruiz.

Many of the class participants were only vaguely familiar with the game, so Ruiz began by explaining the basics.

Traditionally, "Toka was an outlet for the women who cared for the kids, worked in the fields with their families, and cared for the house. It [was a] time to gather and socialize," said Ruiz.

Arena Poker Room Now Open at Talking Stick Resort

BY CHRIS PICCIUOLO
O'odham Action News
chris.picciuolo@srpmic-nsn.gov

An exciting milestone is being celebrated at the Talking Stick Resort, an enterprise of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community.

The exclusive pre-opening party for the brand-new Arena Poker Room was held on February 7 for SRPMIC Council members, Gaming Board directors and media. After a few years of planning, the room is now fully operational and stocked with 68 poker tables.

During the afternoon, the room was open to SRPMIC employees, Community members and Talking Stick Casino and Casino Arizona employees for a sneak peek. A blessing of the room was given earlier in the day at a private ceremony. The room officially opened to the public on February 8.

From concrete to poker room, the entire room now expands westward to where the parking lot used to be.

True to its name, the Arena Poker Room has 130 arena-sized LED television screens hanging from the ceiling and around the walls and pillars.

“We’re very excited about this room! It’s the largest poker room in Arizona,” said Ramon Martinez, director of public relations at Casino Arizona/Talking Stick Resort.

“We have service at every table, a sit-down dining area and a beautiful bar as you walk in. There is an outdoor balcony for fresh air. The ambience is really nice.”

The Arena Poker Room will continue to host the Arizona State Poker Tournament and offer a full schedule of poker games, with daily tournaments and hands of Texas Hold ’em, Omaha and 7-Card Stud.

Guests at the exclusive pre-opening party for the brand-new Arena Poker Room enjoy the balcony outside, where new menu items were showcased.

SRPMIC Council members, Gaming Board directors and stakeholders cut the ribbon to signify the opening of the Arena Poker Room at Talking Stick Resort.

February Senior Breakfast Celebrates the Year of the Dragon

BY JUAN YSAGUIRRE
O'odham Action News
juan.ysaguirre@srpmic-nsn.gov

The Chinese zodiac features a 12-year cycle represented by 12 different animals: rat, ox, tiger, rabbit, dragon, snake, horse, goat, monkey, rooster, dog and pig. During the Lunar New Year, celebrations can last up to 16 days. This year, the Chinese New Year holiday began on February 10 and ended on the 17th.

To celebrate Chinese New Year and usher in the Year of the Dragon, the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Senior Services Department hosted the monthly Senior Breakfast at the Talking Stick Resort Ballroom on February 7. Community seniors were provided a delicious breakfast accompanied by fresh coffee and beverages. Jessica Martinez from Senior Services served as the emcee.

The three-person Fushicho Daiko Taiko drum group performed first for the seniors, receiving a rousing round of applause after their lively performances.

Taiko is the Japanese word for “great drum.” In the past, taiko was used to signal distant villages, such as to warn of the approach of an enemy or an impending disaster. The drums also helped signal troops on the battlefield. Currently featured in shrines and temples throughout present-day Japan, taiko can still be heard, although today its purpose is more spiritual and celebratory.

Following the Fushicho Daiko Taiko drum group, Kenny Perez from the Dynamic Martial Arts Academy performed a lion dance. Perez trained under Master/Coach Wu Bin alongside talented classmates Jet Li and Donnie Yen, eventually working with them on movie projects. With his assistant by his side, Perez performed wearing a samurai mask while twirling around a massive sword as traditional Asian music played throughout the ballroom.

The celebration came to an end as Perez and his assistant donned a two-person red dragon costume and danced a lap around the ballroom, visiting nearly every table along the way to help spread good luck and positivity. Perez then released confetti via a small fire-cracker to celebrate the seniors and to wish them and their loved ones a happy Year of the Dragon.

Near the end of his performance, Kenny Perez from the Dynamic Martial Arts Academy and his assistant donned a Red Dragon costume to help celebrate the Lunar New Year.

The Fushicho Daiko Taiko drum group invited all to join in on the drumming fun. Roberta Johnston happily joined them.

2023 Employee Service Awards Recognition Program

SRPMIC Community Manager Bryan Meyers, who was honored for 30 years of service, provided the opening and closing remarks for the event.

SRPMIC Vice-President Ricardo Leonard gave the blessing, and President Martin Harvier briefly expressed his appreciation to the employees before joining the rest of Council on stage to congratulate the employees as their names were called.

One of the most notable employees honored was Teresa Leonard, who has worked for the Community for 45 years, beginning in 1978. Leonard couldn't make it to the event, but her supervisor, Director of Administration Glen Law, talked about her hard work and service to the Community.

"She has so much knowledge about our operations," said Law. "She knows what to anticipate and what to expect, [and it's] very valuable for someone like a director to have someone like that who knows these things. I hope you all have a 'Teresa' in your department."

Teresa's daughter Crystal Leonard, who was recognized herself for 10 years of service to the Community, spoke on her mother's behalf.

"She enjoyed her years working for the Community and met thousands of people," said Leonard. "She thanks all of her bosses, former and current, and says 'thank you' to the Community for allowing her to serve for 45 years."

Haydukovich and Assistant Community Manager Lena Jackson-Eckert presented the awards.

A sold-out audience of American Indian Chamber of Commerce of Arizona (AICCAZ) chamber and board members gathered at the Courtyard by Marriott Scottsdale Salt River on January 26 to hear former Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community President Ivan Makil speak at the January Networking Luncheon.

Since it was established in 1995, the AICCAZ has been a resource for American Indian-owned businesses across Arizona. The monthly luncheons provide an opportunity for AICCAZ members to network and learn from experienced community and business leaders.

The event was hosted by Discover Salt River and Talking Stick Entertainment District.

SRPMIC Council member David Antone offered an opening prayer and a few words about the venue and Makil. Antone pointed out the importance of hosting the luncheon at this particular hotel, located on SRPMIC land in the Business Corridor.

"Ivan Makil's name came up at a Council meeting this past week, and I told his son, 'It doesn't matter if his name comes up, it's always 'President Makil' even though he's no longer the [SRPMIC] president," said Antone. "But I think a lot of people really respect that time in his life when he contributed to this Community. I'm grateful to know him."

Makil was elected to three consecutive terms as president of the SRPMIC. Under his leadership, the Community established enterprises such as Talking Stick Golf Course, Casino Arizona, Saddleback Communications and Chaparral Business Park. He also helped expand existing enterprises such as the Salt River Materials Group, and he helped negotiate the Loop 101 and the Outer Loop Freeway.

"I'm always honored when I get to visit and share experiences and listen to the experiences of other folks whom I've gotten to know over the years and meet new [people]," said Makil, as he addressed the audience.

Makil shared some wisdom gained from his experience as a community leader.

"The best measure of the success of a community is the health of its people," Makil said. "Healthy physically and mentally. A healthy social life. A healthy cultural support. A healthy economy. All of those things are what make our communities whole."

At the end of Makil's speech, a few AICCAZ members were able to engage with him and ask questions and bounce ideas back and forth about their business ventures and experiences in their communities.

SRPMIC Council member David Antone opened the American Indian Chamber of Commerce of Arizona January Networking Luncheon with a prayer and positive words about Ivan Makil.

Healthy Lifestyle Series Concludes with Healthy Boundaries Presentation

BY JUAN YSAGUIRRE
 O'odham Action News
juan.ysaguirre@srpmic-nsn.gov

Throughout January, the Healthy Lifestyle Series of weekly gatherings took place in the Accelerated Learning Academy auditorium, with the goal of helping to build a more supportive and understanding Community.

On January 23, Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Health Educator Vurlene Notsinneh-Bowekaty facilitated the final entry in the Healthy Lifestyle Series, a presentation on establishing healthy boundaries.

Setting healthy boundaries is a key component in helping to reduce the day-to-day stresses we all experience. Throughout her presentation, Notsinneh-Bowekaty educated the attendees on how they can help improve their day-to-day life and overall well-being by understanding and implementing healthy boundaries.

The presentation began with an ice-breaker that got the attendees out of their seats and into conversations with people they did not know. On the ALA auditorium screen, Notsinneh-Bowekaty presented an ice-breaker image that showed a map with each step containing an ice-breaker question.

Afterward, Notsinneh-Bowekaty asked the group how it felt talking with someone they did not know, specifically how their personal boundaries felt. "Did you feel like your boundaries were violated?" she asked. She then discussed how boundaries give us protection.

"A boundary is an invisible line around us," Notsinneh-Bowekaty said. "Unfortunately, when COVID happened, we all had a boundary that [couldn't be] violated. Having to be 6 feet away, wearing a mask, we had to stay away from one another [during that time]," she stated.

Notsinneh-Bowekaty continued to describe different boundaries and how they can make us feel. "How many of you, when someone asks you to do something, automatically say yes?" she asked. "Learning to set your boundaries is taking care of yourself first," she added. "Learning to say 'no' when you need to and putting your needs first is key."

During her presentation, Notsinneh-Bowekaty shared a personal boundary she has. "For me, I don't like when people cuss," she stated. "I said that to one of my students, and they asked if it offends me. I told them yes, and [the student] said 'Oh, okay. I'll stop.'"

Establishing boundaries can help manage stress, reduce anxiety and eliminate the feeling of being overwhelmed. Notsinneh-Bowekaty described how, on one Saturday, she had many tasks she needed to do, which included cleaning her house, folding her laundry and going to get groceries.

"I didn't want to do any of [my errands]," shared Notsinneh-Bowekaty. "Instead, I grabbed my color books and some markers, and I started coloring. By the time I realized it, it was 4 p.m. Rather than doing all my errands that I didn't want to do, I took care of Vurlene first," she said.

Notsinneh-Bowekaty added that though it's important for people to recognize your boundaries, recognizing and respecting the boundaries of others is just as important.

"A lot of us go through a lot of stuff. We've lost a lot of loved ones in the past three years. Learning to ask for help from somebody you trust is important," she said. "We have to take care of ourselves first."

The presentation was a part of the annual Healthy Lifestyle Series brought to the Community in partnership with the Salt River Education Division, Way of Life Facility and the Salt River Tribal Library.

Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community Health Educator Vurlene Notsinneh-Bowekaty introduced a great icebreaker to the group as a way for everyone to get to know each other and to show how boundaries can be tested without being inappropriate.

How to Close Social Media Accounts of a Deceased Loved One

Dear Savvy Senior,

How do I go about canceling a person's social media accounts when they die? My wife passed away a few months ago and her social media accounts are still active.

Sad Spouse

Dear Sad,

I'm very sorry for your loss, but this is a smart move on your behalf and one that often gets overlooked. Social media is part of many people's daily lives, but when a person passes away their dormant accounts can become vulnerable to scammers who can hack into them and even steal your deceased loved one's identity.

Here's a run-down of how you can cancel or change many different social media accounts after a loved one dies.

Facebook: If your wife used Facebook, you can either "memorialize" or "delete" her account.

A memorialized account serves as a place where family and friends can share memories to celebrate the deceased person's life, with the word "Remembering" shown next to the deceased person's name. Once an account is memorialized, content the person shared is still visible on Facebook to the audience it was originally shared with, however, the user's profile will not show up in public spaces such as people you may know, ads or birthday reminders.

To memorialize your wife's profile simply go to Facebook.com/help/contact/234739086860192. Or, if you'd rather have her account removed, go to Facebook.com/help/contact/228813257197480.

To memorialize her account requires proof of death (via death certificate, obituary or memorial card), but if you wish to delete the account, you'll also need to verify that you're an immediate family member, legal representative or executor, unless you're the legacy contact on her account.

Instagram: The policy on a deceased users' Instagram account is the similar to Facebook's, which owns Instagram. You can either memorialize or remove the account at Help.Instagram.com/264154560391256. But just like with Facebook, you'll need to provide proof of death and relationship to the deceased.

X (formerly Twitter): To deactivate an X account, go to Help.Twitter.com and type in "How to contact X about a deceased family member's account" in the search bar and follow the prompts. After you submit your request, X will email you with instructions for providing more details, including information about the deceased, a copy of your ID, and a copy of the deceased's death certificate.

YouTube and/or Google: To close these accounts, simply go to Support. Google.com/accounts/troubleshoot-er/6357590 and fill out their form and upload scans of the death certificate and your ID.

Pinterest: To remove a Pinterest account, email Care@pinterest.com with the deceased user's account username, proof of death and proof of relationship to the deceased.

LinkedIn: To remove a deceased person's LinkedIn profile, submit a request at LinkedIn.com/help/linkedin/ask/ts-rdmlp. You'll need to provide the name and URL to the profile; the relationship you have to the deceased; the email address; date of passing; and link to an obituary.

Snapchat: To delete this account, simply login to the account and click "Delete My Account" and follow the prompts.

Tumblr: Send an email to Support@tumblr.com requesting to remove the account of the deceased person with their Tumblr username, proof of their death, and proof of your relationship to the deceased.

If your wife had social media through a company not listed here, go to that company's website for information on how to delete the account.

Learning the O’odham Womens Game of Toka with Jessica Ruiz

A line of mesquite and willow u’usagas lie on the grass floor before a game.

The recreational game, she explained, is played among all generations of women of the four O’odham tribes, the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, the Gila River Indian Community, the Ak-Chin Indian Community and the Tohono O’odham Nation.

“When you play, there is no age limit. One of your 6-year-olds can be playing with one of the team’s oldest members,” said Ruiz. “As soon as you can run and hold a stick, you can start playing with the women.”

Toka is often compared to modern-day field hockey. The goal is to hit the o’da, the game piece, across the field with an u’usaga, the playing stick, and pass your team’s goal line. The game can get feisty, as there are no boundaries to the playing field—players can extend the width of the playing field as far as their legs can handle.

While the women play hard on the field, their u’usaga is a trusted companion that fiercely supports them throughout the match.

“An u’usaga is an extension of you. This is a person that is going to help you on the field,” said Ruiz. “They are gonna carry you when you are tired, and they will run with you when you are chasing the o’da.”

The u’usaga is unlike anything you’ll find in a typical sports equipment store. It is a stick handcrafted from mesquite or willow wood. Ruiz explained that the O’odham word for wood, u’us, becomes u’usaga once it is given ownership.

When looking for the perfect stick, Ruiz encourages women to be selective. “You are going to look for a stick that fits you. Inspect it all around, make sure you see no knobs or bends that might weaken your stick, or even animals that may be living inside the stick.”

Ruiz explains that the u’usaga preparation is a traditional role designated to male family members. They cut the branch, peel it, then bend it with the heat of a fire. Once they hand the prepared sticks to the women to play with, the men can no longer handle the women’s game pieces, as it is the woman or girl’s responsibility to carry and care for the stick. However, Ruiz adds, women can gather and prepare their own u’usaga if they wish.

“As an individual, how you see yourself creates the connection you have [to O’odham culture] because it could be this game, traditional singing, or even dancing,” said Ruiz. “As long as you are connected [to O’odham culture], nobody can tell you you’re ‘not O’odham enough’ to play or know these songs or dances. Being O’odham is making this part of your life. That is what himdag is; you are living that life.”

In the upcoming weeks, Ruiz and the class members will travel to the Red Mountain preservation area to search for their future u’usaga. Eventually, they hope to host a toka scrimmage and allow the interested women to play the O’odham sport that is so rich in history.

Types of Toka Game Pieces

Salt River had their own distinct o’da made of knotted twine or sinew. Community elders recall utilizing rabbit gut or plant fibers for the piece. This replica was gifted by the late Royce Manuel to Onk Akimel Sivliki.

The most commonly used o’da is made from a mesquite or willow tree branch and is tied together with a string or thin leather piece.

Arizona Indian Festival Closes Out Scottsdale's Western Week Celebration

BY KARI HAAHR
OAN Newspaper Assistant
kari.haahr@srmic-nsn.gov

To cap off Scottsdale's annual Western Week celebration, which began on January 27, the Arizona American Indian Tourism Association held its annual Arizona Indian Festival on February 3 and 4 at the Scottsdale Civic Center.

While Western Week as a whole is a celebration of Scottsdale's identity as part of the "Old West," the Arizona Indian Festival is a unique inter-tribal event celebrating the traditional cultures, arts, crafts and foods of the state's 22 federally recognized tribes and promoting various tribal tourism opportunities.

The event's two primary areas were the main stage, where tribal dancers and singers from across the state performed both narrative and social dances, and the "Indian village," highlighting cultural traditions and dwellings of Arizona's tribes. Tribal arts and crafts demonstrators, food and travel/tourism vendors and representatives for Miss Indian Arizona were available for questions and information. Art and craft vendors from as far away as New York occupied a series of booths weaving around both sections. Representing the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community was Beaded Plume, a business featuring an array of unique beaded jewelry handcrafted by Maricela Hinojosa.

In his opening address, Scottsdale Mayor David Ortega said, "When I see people holding hands in a circle oaf many nations, of many origins coming together in Scottsdale, it really warms my heart. Scottsdale is a wonderful center for joy, and you make us joyful." He then asked the members of the tribal royalty to provide short introductions, beginning with 2023-24 Miss Salt River Kennise McGertt.

Mesa Jackrabbits Defeat Westwood Warriors 55-19

After sitting out a few games before becoming eligible to play on the varsity basketball team after transferring to Mesa High School, Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community member Israel "Izzy" Loring is happy to be suiting up as a Jackrabbit.

O'odham Action News followed Loring as the Jackrabbits played at Westwood High School vs. the Westwood Warriors on the rainy Thursday night of February 1.

With a win over the Warriors, the Jackrabbits were looking to go 20-5 overall and 9-0 in the region.

Without missing a beat, the Jackrabbits played solid, dominating defense for the entire game and maintaining a solid lead throughout.

At halftime, the Jackrabbits were up 34-5, and they didn't show signs of slowing down the rest of the way. The final score was 55-10 Jackrabbits.

"Today we played good basketball. ... Less turnovers, not giving them opportunities," said Loring.

With their recent play, Mesa High School head coach Scott Stansberry said that the team just found out they are in the open ranking, where he hopes the team will stay.

"We clinched the region, so now we're regional champs," said Stansberry, whose team is ranked first in 6A East Valley. "Right now, things are looking great, and we're looking better every day and seeing where we can take this thing."

The defense-first approach seems to be working for the Jackrabbits this season.

"We hang our hat on defense. As long as we defend, we think great things are going to happen," said Stansberry. "We preach it and we apply it. We defend first and execute, letting the boys showcase their skills."

The defensive-minded Loring fits right in on his new team, according to his coach.

"Adding Izzy was a blessing. He is only a junior, so I'm excited to see him the rest of the year," said Stansberry. "He's in for a big senior year. I'm glad to have Izzy; I'm glad he's a Jackrabbit, and I know he is too."

Mesa Jackrabbits player Israel "Izzy" Loring sets up a play as he crosses half court on February 1, as the Jackrabbits defeated Westwood 55-10.

Loring feels as though with the Jackrabbits, he's being developed well as a player.

"Coming onto the team has been a really good opportunity for me. Nothing but progress. I think we're many offerings of the Talking Stick Entertainment District. The village proved to be a hub of excitement. Attendees saw side-by-side representations of different tribal cultures and their selected crafts for demonstration. Tribal representatives shared the unique features and highlights of their communities, encouraging tourists and visitors of all backgrounds to visit.

Also within the village a children's crafting section stayed busy, as did the Miss Indian Arizona Booth, which had

As an event that draws visitors from well beyond Arizona, many guests were newly introduced to the tribal communities that have called this land home since before Arizona became a state. The Arizona Indian Festival itself was a promising conclusion to Western Week, as it provided a final thought about Scottsdale's "Wild West" legacy and honored Native populations and their perspectives.

Big Wheel Day at the Early Childhood Education Center

Rolling up to the Early Childhood Education Center, a ladder from one of the Salt River Fire Department fire engines stood tall in the sky.

Then came the honks, beeps and engine roars from the vehicles at Big Wheel Day on January 26, which brought joy to the many enrolled ECEC children, their families and staff members. Vehicles from the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community's police, fire and public works departments were on display in the parking lot for visitors to explore.

ECEC staff safely escorted groups of children from vehicle to vehicle, letting them experience the different sights and sounds, as well as sitting behind the wheel of a variety of trucks.

"Our event is to help facilitate experiences for our students. We are an Early Head Start program, and children have a curriculum that they are learning, a six-week course on transportation and roads," said Carmen Briones, family involvement specialist at ECEC. "As we come together and wrap up that curriculum and learning, we have the Salt River Fire Department, Salt River Police Department and other Community departments on hand to provide those real hands-on experiences for our students."

Other vehicles spotlighted that day included a tow truck from RezHawk Towing, a school bus, a four-wheel off-road vehicle and a John Deere tractor.

Westwood Senior Night Celebrates Superstar Student-Athlete Angie Montoya

BY JUAN YSAGUIRRE
O'odham Action News
Juan.ysaguirre@srpmic-nsn.gov

It was a night four years in the making for Westwood High School student-athlete and Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community member Angie Montoya. As the varsity girls basketball season winds down to an end, Westwood hosted their yearly Senior Night celebration on January 30 for their last home game of the season, against Red Mountain.

Unfortunately, Montoya has been rehabilitating a torn ACL injury she suffered six months ago. However, she was able to walk with her parents, brother, grandma, great-grandma and cousin to center court, where she was honored and celebrated for the four years she spent as a member of the varsity Westwood Lady Warriors basketball team.

Overcome with emotion, Montoya received a bouquet of flowers, a Westwood Senior 2024 sash and plenty of hugs from her teammates and family. As she was celebrated, her Senior Night speech played through the gym's sound system.

"These past six months [rehabilitating] have been a journey but will soon come to an end this summer. With that being said, I have decided to play basketball at the next level while pursuing my degree in sports psychology," said Montoya in her speech, which was delivered by varsity teammate Aubrianna Herring.

Following her Senior Night spotlight at center court, Montoya and the five other Westwood seniors posed for photos at the free-throw line.

"Angie came into our program and immediately started to make an impact as a freshman," said Ron Campton, Westwood varsity girls basketball head coach. As he watched Montoya grow into a proven leader on and off the court, Campton had only positive remarks about the time he's spent coaching, mentoring and supporting Montoya for the last four years.

"In the following two seasons [as a sophomore and junior], she emerged as one of the best and most consistent outside shooting threats in the state, knocking down 95 [3-pointers] and stretching defenses when she touched the ball," he stated proudly.

As a testament to Montoya's legacy at Westwood, when the Senior Night game began, she was given the opportunity to score Westwood's first basket of the game completely unopposed by Red Mountain. As the ball swished through the net, Campton called a timeout to substitute Montoya out of the game. As she made her way to the bench, the entire gymnasium erupted with cheers and applause as Montoya and Campton hugged one another.

"Last night was very tough for her, but we were glad she could get a couple buckets in a season that hasn't gone at all how any of us would've liked for her," stated Campton. Though Westwood would go on to lose their Senior Night game 60-41, the future of the program remains bright, as many JV athletes will make the leap to varsity next season.

Montoya is gearing up for graduation this May, after which she will continue her ascension by beginning her college career later this year with the goal of returning to the basketball court as well.

"She is an incredibly hard worker, a passionate basketball player and an amazing young woman who I've been lucky to coach the last four years," said Campton.

During Westwood's first possession, Montoya was given the lane unopposed by Red Mountain's defenders, a testament to her legendary tenure at Westwood.

Fountain Hills Shines Against Rival Camp Verde

BY JUAN YSAGUIRRE
O'odham Action News
juan.ysaguirre@srpmic-nsn.gov

No matter the time or place, when basketball rivals Fountain Hills and Camp Verde play each other, it's always a competitive game. On January 27 at the Fort McDowell Recreation Center, the Fountain Hills Falcons junior varsity girls basketball team went head-to-head against local rival Camp Verde Cowboys in a weekend tournament which featured both the boys and girls JV and varsity teams.

Student-athlete Mani Williams shined on the court as she handled the playmaking duties as point guard. When she was subbed in during the second quarter, the game began to go Fountain Hills' way, as they took a commanding lead and never looked back. Camp Verde tried stopping Williams by sending multiple double-teams her way, but Williams managed to keep the momentum going on both sides of the ball.

In the fourth quarter, Williams nearly shook her opponent out of her shoes as she performed a crossover which then allowed her teammate to get open for the easy bucket. Williams also contributed offensively as she showed no fear, diving through the paint for a finger-roll layup.

When it was all said and done, the JV Falcons handled their rivals Camp Verde with ease, winning 45-28.

A freshman this year, Williams has been spending time on the JV and varsity girls basketball teams. Her composure on the court and strong communication skills with her teammates have allowed her to shine on both squads this year for Fountain Hills.

This year the Fountain Hills varsity team is primed to make a deep playoff push toward winning the 3A state basketball championship. With the playoffs that just began on February 13, all eyes will be on Fountain Hills, as they are 9-0 in regional play and 13-1 in conference play, as well as No. 1 in their division.

The 2024 Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) 3A championship game will take place on February 23 at the Arizona Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Phoenix.

Mani Williams served as the floor general on the court against Camp Verde. Most of the plays during the game began with her commanding the ball and setting up the play.

Taking matters into her own hands, Mani Williams also battled in the paint for rebounds against Camp Verde's tough defense.

Driving through the lane for an easy two points, Mani Williams helped solidify the easy victory for Fountain Hills inside the Fort McDowell Recreation Center.

“Attending UNITY is a great opportunity for our youth to meet other tribal youth from all across the country,” said Youth Development Specialist Sommer Lopez. “For a majority of our members, it is their first time being in a setting with hundreds of other tribal youth. Grand Opening for New High-Limit Room at Casino Arizona

The January 25 grand opening of the new High-Limit Room at Casino Arizona, an enterprise of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community, was packed with the casino's best players, who were ready to try out the all the new games and amenities.

"We relocated and reimagined our high-limit room to be able to give our guests, who have seen our property for 25 years, something new and exciting and give them more variety in a [better]-lit room more conducive to flow," said Casino Arizona General Manager Trenni Martinez.

The High-Limit Room, which took about three months to complete from conception, opened to the public directly after a ribbon-cutting ceremony.

Fifty percent larger than the previous room, the new room has six table games and 93 of the newest and best slots on the market, according to Martinez. There is also a new menu dedicated only to this room.

In order for Casino Arizona staff to work in the room, they have to adhere to elevated service levels.

"That's something that our players deserve," said Martinez.

This new room will require a slightly higher bet from players compared with other rooms.

"We express our gratitude to the SRPMIC. [The Community] signs off on us to do some fun stuff [like the new High-Limit Room]," said Martinez. "Everybody who works here is so excited!"

Coronado JV Boys Basketball Fall Short Against Tempe High

BY JUAN YSAGUIRRE
O'odham Action News
Juan.ysaguirre@srpmic-nsn.gov

The Coronado Dons boys basketball team has had their fair share of wins and losses this season. They began the season on a three-game winning streak that included a nail-biter victory in which the Dons defeated the Vista Grande Spartans 48-47.

On January 16 at Coronado, the JV Dons defeated the Tempe High Buffaloes to the tune of 64-54. Ten days later, both teams geared up for their rematch on January 26, this time at Tempe High.

Student-athlete and Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community member Pat Shaw Jr. got the start and showed no fear, showcasing his stellar jump shot. Starting at guard, Shaw immediately nailed a 3-pointer, which gave the Dons the early lead. The battle went back and forth as both teams played hard and with tenacity.

Right before halftime, technical fouls were issued to both teams due to excessive trash talking by the players on the court. The tension never spilled over, but both teams were relentless in not letting the other team gain the edge. Shaw played most of the game, taking only brief moments for rest.

Tempe gained the lead 48-33 after halftime; unfortunately, Coronado would get within a few points of the Buffaloes but never got the lead back. The Buffaloes tightened up their defense, putting multiple defenders on Coronado's shooters, including Shaw. When the clock hit zero at the end of the fourth quarter, it was the Tempe High Buffaloes who secured the victory over the Coronado Dons 59-51.

The Coronado JV men's basketball team finished out the rest of their basketball season with two losses on January 29 and 31, against the Dysart Demons and the Cortez Colts. They were defeated 51-70 and 39-52, respectively.

The JV Dons finished their 2024 campaign with a 4-5 win-loss record.

TOP: As soon as Pat Shaw Jr. made his corner 3-pointer in the first quarter, Tempe High sent their best defenders his way as they tried to limit his offensive output.

LEFT: The game between the Dons and the Buffaloes proved to be a bit testy as both teams gave it their all on the basketball court.

RIGHT: Shaw Jr. shined on the Tempe High court, proof that his ascension towards playing on Coronado's varsity team is imminent.

Varsity Dons Lose to Varsity Buffaloes in Tempe

BY JUAN YSAGUIRRE
O'odham Action News
juan.ysaguirre@srpmic-nsn.gov

On January 26, the Coronado High School Dons varsity boys basketball team traveled to Tempe for a matchup against their local rival, the Tempe High Buffaloes. Sophomore student-athlete and Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community member Julian Crowley got the start and showed why he's one of the leaders on this year's varsity team for the Dons.

Crowley's play was essential to the team's goal of making it into the 4A playoffs this season and competing for a state championship. His impressive dribbling and NBA-ready jump shot caused the Buffaloes to quickly send their best defenders in to try to stop him.

Both teams were vocal on the court, reminiscent of how the junior varsity game went between the two teams earlier in the day. During the second quarter, Crowley drove through the lane, absorbing contact while still making his layup. A Tempe High defender didn't appreciate Crowley's hard-earned bucket, and from that moment on stopping Crowley was the main focus of the Buffaloes' game plan. The teams went into halftime with only a handful of points separating them.

Tempe High had a different approach coming into the third quarter. Their adjustments would prove to be beneficial, as they would eventually grab the lead away from the Dons and never look back.

When the dust settled after this hard-fought and highly entertaining game, the Tempe High Buffaloes would be the ones to claim victory against the Coronado Dons 52-54.

Now with the playoffs on the horizon, the Dons must hope for a few teams in their conference to lose in order for their championship dreams to remain alive. The Dons finished the season with an overall win-loss record of 7-10, just good enough for them to be in the playoff conversations for seeding.

The Arizona Interscholastic Association (AIA) 4A conference playoff play-in will begin on February 16. Following the play-in tournament, the official AIA playoffs will begin on February 21, with the AIA championship game scheduled for February 29 at the Arizona Veterans Memorial Coliseum in Phoenix.

TOP: Julian Crowley cuts through heavy traffic through the lane as he makes his way for a hard-earned two points against the Tempe High Buffaloes.

RIGHT: At the free throw line during the third quarter, Crowley easily swished both free throws while the Tempe High crowd continually tried distracting him with noise from the bleachers.

SPECIAL ELECTION TO AMEND THE COMMUNITY’S CONSTITUTION

Summary

Pursuant to Article XIII of the Salt River Pima-Maricopa Indian Community’s (“Community”) Constitution, the Council has approved to hold a special election on March 26, 2024. The special election will allow the voters to determine whether to amend the Community’s Constitution on matters regarding election procedure. These proposed changes were discussed with the Community in 2019-2020 at district meetings, and then also at the Election Board’s Open House on November 6, 2023. These proposed amendments came from Community member input into the various elections that have been held throughout the years.

There will be ten (10) questions on the ballot and all voters will have the option to vote “yes” or “no” on each proposed change. A brief summary of the amendments are below:

- Add an restriction that a person convicted of a felony within the last ten (10) years may not run for the Office of the President or Vice President;
- Add an restriction that a person convicted of a felony within the last ten (10) years may not run for the Office of a Council member;
- Push the General Election date back to the third Tuesday in November;
- Set the Inauguration for the third Saturday in December;
- Remove the twenty (20) day waiting period between nomination meetings for President/Vice, and Council members;
- Remove the requirement that at least two (2) candidates be nominated for each race;
- Add language to permit certain persons deemed “incompetent” to vote;
- Authorize the Board to remove disruptive or intoxicated persons from polling sites;
- Remove any Constitutional reference to being “registered to vote”; and
- Simplify the process to request an absentee ballot.

All voters will be mailed election information, including an informational pamphlet that details each of the 10 questions. In addition, presentations will be held at district meetings throughout February and March. If you have questions, please contact Erica Harvier, Council Secretary/Election Coordinator at (480) 362-7466.

BALLOT QUESTIONS

Below is a list of questions that will appear on the special election ballot on March 26, 2024. You will be asked to mark each question with a YES OR NO.

QUESTION #1 Should the Constitution be amended to add an additional requirement that, in order to hold the office of President or Vice President, a person cannot have been convicted of a felony during the ten (10) years preceding the date of the Election? A vote “YES” would prohibit a person who has been convicted of a felony within ten (10) years of the date of the election to run for the office of President or Vice President. A vote “NO” would keep the same standards that currently exist for individuals who would like to run for the office of President or Vice President.	QUESTION #6 Should the Constitution be amended to remove the requirement that at least two (2) candidates be nominated for each office? A vote “YES” would allow for the situation in which only one (1) person is nominated for an elected seat and runs unopposed. A vote “NO” would keep the current requirements of at least two (2) candidates being nominated for office, even though there are times when candidates run unopposed.
QUESTION #2 Should the Constitution be amended to add an additional requirement that, in order to hold the office of Council member, a person cannot have been convicted of a felony for the ten (10) years preceding the date of the Election? A vote “YES” would prohibit a person who has been convicted of a felony within ten (10) years of the date of the election to run for the office of Council member. A vote “NO” would keep the same standards that currently exist for individuals who would like to run for the office of Council member.	QUESTION #7 Should the Constitution be amended to allow protected persons, or those deemed mentally incompetent, to vote if they are accompanied by their guardian or have reasonable verification from their guardian that they have the mental faculties to vote at that time, and the Election Board Judge agrees with that recommendation? A vote “YES” would allow for a protected person, or a person deemed mentally incompetent by the Court, to vote if their guardian is present or they have verification from their guardian that they have the mental faculties to vote, and the Election Board Judge deems them fit to vote. A vote “NO” would require the Election Board to continue to turn away all Community members deemed mentally incompetent by the Court from voting.
QUESTION #3 Should the Constitution be amended to move the general election to the third Tuesday in November? A vote “YES” would move the Community’s general election from September to November. A vote “NO” would keep the Community’s general election in September.	QUESTION #8 Should the Constitution be amended to allow the Election Board the ability to remove an individual from the polling site on Election Day when the person is too intoxicated, incapacitated or is disrupting other voters and election staff? A vote “YES” would provide support for the Election Board to remove a voter, who is too intoxicated or under the influence, from the polling site. A vote “NO” would keep the current language without mention of intoxicated individuals.
QUESTION #4 Should the Constitution be amended to provide that the Community’s elected officials inauguration is always held on the third Saturday of December? A vote “YES” would move the Community’s inauguration ceremony to always be held on a Saturday. A vote “NO” would keep the Community’s inauguration ceremony as two (2) weeks prior to January 1, regardless of the day of the week.	QUESTION #9 Should the Constitution be amended to remove all references requiring eligible voters to be formally “registered to vote”? A vote “YES” would remove the references to a formal and separate voter registration process. A vote “NO” would keep the language in the Constitution, even though the Community does not require a formal voter registration process.
QUESTION #5 Should the Constitution be amended so that the nominations meetings for Council members are not required to be held twenty (20) days after those of the President and Vice President? A vote “YES” would allow the scheduling of candidate nominations meetings to be more flexible and proximate. A vote “NO” would keep the current requirements of twenty (20) days between the nomination meetings for the President, Vice President, and Council members.	QUESTION #10 Should the Constitution be amended to allow a Community member to vote by absentee ballot, if they so request? A vote “YES” would allow Community members to vote absentee for any reason, including the recent pandemic or personal preference. A vote “NO” would keep the limitations on Community members voting by absentee ballot.

GILBERT ROAD BRIDGE CONSTRUCTION UPDATE

February 9, 2024

SUBMITTED BY MARICOPA COUNTY
DEPARTMENT OF TRANSPORTATION

Work continues on the Gilbert Road Bridge at an accelerated schedule with a goal of reopening travel over the Salt River, from Thomas Road north of Loop 202 to State Route 87 this summer. Following last year’s historic rainfall and water releases by the Salt River Project (SRP), which heavily damaged the low-water crossing, the Maricopa County Department of Transportation (MCDOT) fast-tracked the bridge construction schedule, moving its reopening to an earlier date.

Construction crews have been working nights and weekends and have achieved several major milestones including drilling twenty-two shafts for the bridge piers and installing precast girders along with preparations in advance of pouring the new deck later this spring. The project also includes the installation of a new storm drain and a new 36” waterline as part of SRP’s water delivery system.

One important feature of the new bridge construction includes abutment protection. The design uses cement-stabilized alluvium (CSA) at each end of the new bridge to protect it from future river flows. The CSA is about 60 feet deep and will guard the bridge from catastrophic flood events and help to ensure that the new bridge provides safe and efficient travel for many decades.

Weather issues are always a concern because they can change construction activity and schedule. MCDOT will continue monitor storm systems and coordinate with SRP for potential water releases through the completion of the project.

For additional project information, please contact MCDOT at: MCDOTProjects@maricopa.gov , or at (602) 506-3342.

SRPMIC Zoning Map and General Plan Land Use Map Update

The SRPMIC Planning Services Division of the Community Development Department is updating the final draft of the Zoning Map as a part of Chapter 25 of the SRPMIC Code of Ordinances. The zoning map indicates the zoning for each tribal land and allotted parcel in the Community. The final draft of the General Plan Land Use Map has been updated to support the revised zoning classifications. The Land Use Map for the General Plan depicts the proposed general uses of land within the SRPMIC.

Community outreach is being held from January through March during the Council District meetings. Staff will provide an overview of the proposed maps, purpose of the update, explanation of changes, and request for the comments from Community members as well as the projected next steps in the process for adoption. The majority of the proposed rezoning changes involve allowing government services and aligning with existing government service uses.

Additional changes include two mapping corrections and a rezone to protect land with an Open Space zoning classification.

Community members are encouraged to attend the upcoming Council District meetings in the next three months to better understand the propose changes and for an opportunity to answer questions.

PUBLIC COMMENTS

Proposed Amendments to the Unclaimed Personal Property Ordinance

Comment Period: January 18, 2024 – March 18, 2024

On Wednesday, January 17, 2024, the SRPMIC Council authorized a 60 day public comment period for the proposed amendments to the Community’s Unclaimed Personal Property Ordinance. The draft ordinance does the following:

The Unclaimed Personal Property ordinance was updated in 2018 with respect to money however the portions related to nonmonetary property were not updated. The original ordinance was adopted around 1977 and is in need of updates with respect to the nonmonetary property. The waiting period before nonmonetary property becomes abandoned is 3 years and this period is too long. Additionally, all property goes through a Court process once it is determined abandoned which takes additional time and leaves the Court with few too many disposition options. The SRPD Property and Evidence Bureau facility is filling up fast as property does not leave the facility quick enough and it is anticipated that the facility will reach maximum capacity within five (5) years. The proposed ordinance shortens the time to 6 months before nonmonetary property is considered abandoned. The proposed ordinance also removes the Court process for all nonmonetary property except for firearms. Abandoned firearms will still go through a Court process to ensure proper legal documentation prior to disposition. There will be also be new notification requirements for the SRPD which will include a public website with a list of unclaimed nonmonetary property in their possession. The proposed ordinance will shorten the overall process from approximately 3 ½ years to 8 months which will improve the operations of the government departments with respect to unclaimed nonmonetary property and create efficient processes for Community members to retrieve items that may belong to them.
